Senior Summit Follow-Up

Dr. John Hicks said four committees have met and they have realized that all the committees needed information from the area churches because churches are one of the larger senior citizen program providers. They said the best way to do that was to centralize gathering the information instead of each committee trying to get the information themselves. They requested information from the churches three weeks ago and will follow up with a meeting with the churches to interview them.

Chairman Price recognized Sandy Harris with the Memphis Bop Club. Ms. Harris gave information regarding dancers to be at the Expo on November 4th. She would like the large dance floor. George Brogdon said he would check with staff. She did say they had a very loud sound system and they would try to work to make sure that it wasn't too loud.

Chairman Price handed out a Senior Expo sign-up sheet for Wednesday, November 3rd, and Thursday, November 4th, the day of the Expo, so everyone could see where they would be working. It was decided that there would not be a vendor booth Visit Card. It was suggested there be a Germantown Expo bag and Wynn Bellerjeau distributed a bag that would be good. George Brogdon said he would check on prices and see what could be done before the Expo.
